P.C.

. The parties present along with their advocates. Respondent No.2 has placed on record the affidavit stating that the parties have settled the matter and that she has no further grievance against the petitioner,in view of the settlement between the parties. She has confirmed the same before us when she was informed about the same. The learned advocate for the petitioner also submits that the parties have settled the matter accordingly, and prays for quashing of FIR.

2. Heard the learned advocates for the parties and the learned APP. Since the complainant has settled the matter, no purpose would be served in continuing the investigation in relation C. R. No.103 of 2006, registered at Khar Police Station, Mumbai, and corresponding proceedings pending before the Metropolitan Magistrate in this regard, hence, the petition is allowed and the C.R. No. 103 of 2006, dated 14th March 2006 registered at Khar Police Station against the petitioner, and any proceeding pending before the learned Magistrate, out of such C. R., are hereby quashed. There has been no order as to costs. Petition is disposed off.
